

Welcome

Located between Gardner and Fitchburg, Westminster is a rural oasis in the heart of north-central Massachusetts. A mere hour away from Boston and half an hour from Worcester, Westminster is easily accessed via Route 2, Route 2A, Route 31 and Route 140.

With an ever expanding list of restaurants, Westminster is fast becoming a dining destination. Our quaint town center offers a number of local shops and services to meet your needs. Visit our famous farmer's market on Friday afternoons during the summer and fall, enjoy one of the many programs at our historic Forbush Memorial Library, or spread out a blanket on our town common and listen to band concerts on Wednesday nights during the summer months. With easy access to Wachusett Mountain, Leominster State Forest and the Midstate Trail, Westminster is a paradise for outdoor enthusiasts. Spend the day touring our scenic farms and visit our historic buildings. There are many first class lodging opportunities in town, so stay over and make a weekend of it! The Town of Westminster invites you to visit and see for yourself what makes our town so special!

45 Leominster State Forest

Leominster State Forest consists of 4,500 acres of forested land, with a large portion located in Westminster. The forest is conveniently located off of Route 2 (exit 28), is convenient from the Boston and Worcester communities. Parking is available along Rte. 31 in several areas. From Memorial Day to Labor Day, parking fees are charged at the beach area. The forest offers recreational opportunities year round, ranging from mountain biking and swimming in the summer to cross country skiing and snowmobiling in the winter. Nature lovers will enjoy the numerous hiking trails, mix of successional forests, the prolific mountain laurel bloom in late June and the opportunity to observe all kinds of wildlife.

46 Midstate Trail

The Midstate Trail is a scenic footpath located in Worcester County, 45 miles west of Boston. This 95 mile hiking trail extends from Rhode Island's North-South Trail; crossing the gentle hills of central Massachusetts and eventually connecting to the Wapack Trail in New Hampshire. The Midstate Trail is highly accessible, easy to hike and the best way to enjoy the natural side of the region.

There are several points of access in Westminister for the Midstate Trail:

the parking lot at the Wachusett Mountain Ski Area; the parking lot for Redemption Rock Historical Site along Route 140 in Princeton; Narrows Road near the Stone Hill Road corner; along Merriam Road near Battles Road; next to the Graffiti Bridge on Oakmont Avenue; and, the "lot" off Bragg Hill Road just north of South Ashburnham Road. For all trailheads, just look for the signs at road crossings and follow the yellow triangles into the woods.

47 Hager Park

The park consists of approximately 57 acres on the east side of the road, abutting Woodside Cemetery and surrounding the Water Treatment facility. There are another 18 ± acres located on the west side of Route 140. The Commission oversees the Wachusett Rambler Recreation Area, a nine acre parcel which abuts the main part of Hager Park. The Rambler has recently been cleared and undergone a field restoration, providing views of Wachusett and other locations. The Commission also administers the Smith Reservoir and Raymond properties containing another 82 ± acres. The Commission has developed a network of trails within the Hager Park and Rambler parcels. The trails are open to the public. A map of the trails can be downloaded from the Hager Park page on the Town's website.

48 Muddy Pond Conservation Area

This Town-owned conservation area consists of 500 acres of protected land and contains the 30-acre Muddy Pond, one of the most peaceful places in the region. The Midstate Trail bisects the property and is accessed from two spur trails off Bragg Hill Road and a Midstate Trail pull-in on Bragg Hill Road just north of South Ashburnham Road (look for the yellow triangles to access the Midstate). Excellent wildlife viewing area and there's even an Adirondack (three-sided) shelter overlooking the pond.

Bragg Hill Road • 978-874-7414

Open year-round.

49 Wachusett Mountain Reservation

This State-owned conservation property lies within the southern tip of Westminister off Route 140 and in the neighboring town of Princeton. It contains 2,250 acres (706 acres in Westminister), many of which are well developed for hiking and nature appreciation. Additional amenities on the site include a summit lookout with automobile and chairlift access, numerous picnic areas, an information center and sanitary and parking facilities. The Midstate Trail runs through the middle of the park and crosses the summit, entering at the ski area at the north end and from Audubon land from the south.
